INSTRUCTIONS TO EMPLOYERS

1. WHO MUST DEDUCT

Every person paying emoluments, herein referred to as an Employer, except a pension benefit or a retiring allowance, whether on his own account or on behalf of any other person must make tax deductions from such payments. (For information about other sources exempt from deduction see Notes 3 and 14.)

2. PAY SUBJECT TO TAX DEDUCTIONS

Pay is the employee's earnings for the pay period, including the value of free board and lodging or any other perquisite, bonus, commission, overtime, director's fees and any other benefits or allowances that are taxable under the Income Tax Act.

3. ITEMS NOT TO BE TREATED AS "PAY"

The following items should not be treated as pay for taxation purposes:

- (a) Benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Act
- (b) Payments of or contributions by the employer towards expenses that were actually incurred by the employee in performing the duties of his employment.
- (c) Any salary, fees or share of profits paid to proprietor or partner which are to be taken into account in computing the gains or profits from a trade, profession or vocation.

If the employer is doubtful whether a particular payment should be treated as pay for tax deduction purposes, he should consult the Inland Revenue Department.

4. PAYMENTS CREDITED TO AN EMPLOYEE'S ACCOUNT

Crediting pay to an employee's bank account constitutes "payment" in the same way as payment in cash and tax should be deducted accordingly. The same position applies if the amount is credited to an account with an employer on which the employee is free to draw or is applied in reduction of a debt due by him to the employer, unless the debt arises from a payment in advance or on account of remuneration from which tax was deducted.

In certain circumstances, pay may be credited to an employee in some special way which makes it doubtful whether the “pay” has actually been “paid”. Where there is any such doubt the matter should be referred to the Inland Revenue Department.

5. AMOUNT TO BE DEDUCTED

The amount to be deducted shall be computed by reference to the appropriate table. The tables are numbered to correspond with the group of allowances claimed. The letter denotes the Pay Period: that is, “W” for weekly paid, “F” for fortnightly paid and “M” for monthly paid workers e.g.: -

- (i) Column 180W represents a person paid weekly and claiming annual allowances of $18,000.
- (ii) Column 180M represents a person paid monthly and claiming allowances of $18,000.
- (iii) Column 183W represents a person paid weekly and claiming annual allowances up to 18300.
- (iv) Column 189M represents a person paid monthly and claiming allowances up to 18900.

The Inland Revenue provides individual Tax Codes when employees complete the IRD 1 Form; in turn these are processed and forwarded to the employer. When the employee completes this form, claims for Social Security contributions and Residential Mortgage Interest will be considered.

However, where the Inland Revenue Department does not provide the employer with an IRD 1 Form showing the appropriate Tax Code, then the employer should be guided by the table below where the tax code is computed based on the employee’s Social Security contribution and the pay period.

Where an employee does not make Social Security contributions then the Tax Code would be either code 180M or 180F or 180W depending on the pay period.

Monthly Pay Period		Fortnightly Pay Period		Weekly Pay Period
Monthly Social Security payment ranges ($)	Assigned Tax Code	Fortnightly Social Security payment ranges ($)	Assigned Tax Code	Weekly Social Security payment ranges ($)	Assigned Tax Code

6. HOW TO USE THE TAX DEDUCTION TABLE

When using the table, the amount of tax to be deducted is determined as follows: -

- (1) Refer to the section of the table corresponding to the pay period, that is, whether weekly, fortnightly or monthly. For example, if the employee is paid monthly refer to “Monthly Tax Deduction Table”.
- (2) The column to the extreme left of the table shows the employee’s weekly, fortnightly or monthly pay. Look down this column for the amount equal to the employee’s pay. Where the pay is between two amounts, use the next higher figure.
- (3) The names at the top of each column except the first column on the left are the Tax Codes. E.g. 180W, 206M, 210F. Select the column showing the Tax Code given to that employee. With the respective pay identified in (6.2) above follow this line across to the column that shows the employees Tax Code.
- (4) The amount shown at the point where the column and the row intersect will be the amount to deduct.

EXAMPLE A:

Monthly salary	$1,610.00
Value of Free Board and Lodging	$ 400.00
Total Monthly Income	$2,010.00
Personal Allowances	$18,000.00

- (a) Refer to the “Monthly Tax Deduction Table”.

- (b) Look down the “Monthly Pay” (left hand) column for the amount of $2,010, or the next higher figure ($2,025).
- (c) Follow this row across to column 180M. The tax to be deducted that month is the figure which appears where the column and the rows intersect, i.e., (26). Deduct $26.00.

EXAMPLE B:

- (a) Half monthly pay including benefits $810
- (b) Assume monthly pay is twice this ($1,620).
- (c) Look down the “Monthly Pay” column to $1,620 or the next figure ($1,625) and if personal allowance $18,097 follow across the table to column 190M ($19,000-$19,399) which shows tax for the month -$2.00.
- (d) The tax to be deducted from the half month pay is one-half of the amount shown, that is, half of $2.00. Deduct $1.00

7. BONUSES

Where a BONUS or retroactive payment is to be paid, the employer should refer the matter to the Inland Revenue Department before making payment.

8. ACCOUNTING FOR AMOUNTS DEDUCTED

Tax deductions withheld from employees are trust funds in the hands of an employer until remitted to the Government of Montserrat. The amount deducted each month must be forwarded to the Comptroller of Inland Revenue on or before the fifteenth day of the following month. The appropriate remittance Form (IRD3) must be used for this purpose.

An employer failing to remit tax by the due date is personally liable for the amount deducted plus a penalty of 5% of the amount deducted or $100.00, whichever is the greater and interest at 10% per annum.

On making any payment of emoluments to an employee from whose emoluments tax is deducted, the employer unless exempted by the Comptroller, must furnish each such employee with particulars of the payment including particulars of the gross emoluments for the pay period and the amount of tax deducted from the pay. Any exemption granted by the Comptroller may at any time be revoked. Every employer must keep, to the satisfaction of the Comptroller, a record of the emoluments paid to each employee whether or not tax has been deducted from these emoluments.

9. PAY AFTER EMPLOYER HAS LEFT

If an employer permanently ceases to employ, or upon the death of an employee, the employer should complete Form IRD4 in quadruplicate.

The employer will then distribute the parts as follows:

Part 1 (the original copy) is to be given to the employee (if deceased, to his personal representative or next of kin) or post it to him no later than the day when the last payment of emoluments was made.

Parts 2 and 3 are to be sent to the Comptroller.

Part 4 is for the employer's records.

Please note that when making payment to any next of kin or personal representative, tax should be deducted as if such employee had been alive at the time of payment.

See Note 12 for information where there is a change of ownership of the business.

10. ANNUAL RETURNS OF EMOLUMENTS PAID

For the convenience of the employer, the employee and the Inland Revenue Department, four copies of Form IRD5) shall be prepared. Note that the appropriate IRD5 Forms are usually sent to employers in December of each year. However, these forms are always available from this Department on request. In addition, you will observe that each sheet holds information for three (3) employees.

The completed forms are distributed as follows

The original copy (white in color) which is perforated should be separated and given to each individual employee.

The duplicate and triplicate copies (pink in color) are to be sent to the Comptroller.

The quadruplicate, i.e. the fourth copy (yellow in color) is for the employer's records.

Where Form IRD4 has been used for cessation as instructed in Note 9 it will NOT be necessary to include an IRD5 for employees whose IRD4 were prepared and submitted earlier.

11. DEATH OF AN EMPLOYER

If an employer dies, anything which he would have been liable to do under these Rules shall be done by his personal representative or, in the case of an employer who paid emoluments on behalf of another person, by the person succeeding him or, if no person succeeds him the person on whose behalf he paid the emoluments.

12. SUCCESSION TO A BUSINESS ETC.

Change of ownership of a business is not treated as a cessation of an employment but the new employers are liable to do everything that the previous employers would have been liable to do. The new employers will not be liable for the payment of any tax which was deductible from emoluments paid to the employees before the change took place.

13. CESSATION OF A BUSINESS

When an employer ceases to carry on business he must pay over to the Comptroller, tax that was deducted and has not been paid over, within seven days of the day on which the last payment of emoluments was made, and complete Form IRD4 in quadruplicate. See Note 9 above for the distribution of the IRD4 Form.

14. NON-DEDUCTIBLE PAYMENTS

Tax should not be deducted where-

- (a) the employee is outside of Montserrat and the emoluments are paid outside of Montserrat, or
- (b) the emoluments consist of a pension benefit or retiring allowance arising out of an employment which was wholly carried on outside of Montserrat, or
- (c) the emoluments consist of a pension payment, or
- (d) the emoluments are paid to: -
 - (i) a worker whose annual earnings from all sources do not exceed $18,000;
 - (ii) domestics including cooks, maids, washers, butlers, gardeners and chauffeurs of private cars and such emoluments do not exceed $289.00 weekly or $1525.000 monthly.
- (e) the Comptroller may by written notice or in any other manner direct that tax should not be deducted from a class of persons or a particular individual.

15. ERRORS IN PRIOR PERIODS

Errors discovered during the year in respect of an earlier week or month MUST be reported at once to the Inland Revenue Department which in turn will give any instructions necessary.

16. REFERRAL TO INLAND REVENUE DEPARTMENT

Where there is any doubt in any case, or where deduction is not prescribed in any particular case, the matters should be referred to the Inland Revenue Department.

17. INCOME TAX OFFENCES

An employer who willfully fails or neglects to deduct tax in accordance with the Income Tax Rules or any direction given hereunder by the Comptroller shall be guilty of an offence against the Income Tax Ordinance.
